

Branch Delegation Form AAUW NC Convention 2009

According to the Bylaws of AAUW NC, Article XII, Meetings, Section 2 Representation,

Branch President (Paragraph a.2) – the branch president has a vote at convention and may delegate that to another member of the branch.

Other Branch Delegates (Paragraph a.3.a) Others from the branch may be appointed as delegates according to the formula of one delegate for each 25 members or major fraction thereof. Each branch shall be entitled to at least one delegate in addition to the president.

According to the Association Bylaws,

“A branch member is one who maintains AAUW membership through a branch.” This includes Paid Life and Fifty-Year Honor members who maintain branch membership. Note: Branch presidents have a vote based on their office. They may assign their vote to another member of their branch. The “number of delegates” applies to the other delegates from the branch. No one can vote more than once.
