PRESENTING AUTHORS-

ELLYN BACHE A native of Washington, DC, Ellyn Bache began as a freelance newspaper journalist while teaching herself to write fiction. Ellyn's works include Safe Passage, Daddy and the Pink Flash, Raspberry Sherbet Kisses, and The Art of Saying Goodbye. Ellyn is the founder and owner of Banks Channel Books.

JAMES KAUFMAN An attorney, businessman and former judge, James J. Kaufman has published several works of non-fiction. His fiction debut, The Collectibles, draws heavily from his experiences in law, his dealings in the business world, and his interactions with people from widely different backgrounds. Kaufman lives in Wilmington. He is currently working on a screenplay for "The Collectibles" and has begun writing his second novel.

DANA SACHS Dana Sachs is a journalist, essayist, editor, translator, novelist and historian. With Nguyễn Nguyệt Cẩm she edited Crossing the River: Short Fiction and Two Cakes Fit for a King: Folktales from Vietnam. The House on Dream Street is her memoir about living in Hanoi. Originally from Tennessee, Dana now resides in Wilmington with her husband and sons.

BERTHA TODD Bertha Boykin Todd was born and raised in rural Sampson County. She earned both a BS and a Master of Library Science Degrees from North Carolina College (now NC Central) in Durham. She also earned additional degrees from ECU. Her teaching career included work as a media specialist, a high school administrator and Central Office administrator in Wilmington. My Restless Journey chronicles Bertha's life from birth to 2010 – her involvement in the community as well as the school system during school desegregation.
