

AAUW NC – March 16, 2024 Annual Meeting Slate of Officer Candidates

The AAUWNC Board has approved the Nominating Committee's slate of candidates for the Offices of Vice President and Treasurer for 2024-26. During the AAUWNC March 16th Annual Business Meeting members will be voting to elect these new Officers. The Nominating Committee thanks those members who considered volunteering and are please to present these candidates for your consideration.

Vice President Nominee: Lena Murrill-Chapman

Lena Murrill-Chapman Bio

Lena Murrill-Chapman is a graduate of Bennett College with a bachelor's degree in Library Science and Intermediate Education and a concentration in Language Arts and Social Studies. She earned a master's degree in Instructional Media/Library Science from North Carolina A&T State University. Lena completed her Leadership Certification from the Center of Creative Leadership in Greensboro, North Carolina and Leadership Development Program at Yale University.

She is currently the branch Co-President for AAUW Greensboro and served as the branch President, from 2018-2020. Under her servant-style leadership, the branch has implemented a variety of activities that enhanced membership and member involvement. Her famous quote is "Members Matter".

It would be an honor to be elected as the vice president of AAUW NC and to work for the many members across the state that dedicate themselves to moving the mission of the organization. Lena looks forward to using her skills in helping to advance equity for women and girls through advocacy, education and research.

“I am thanking you in advance for your vote, to elect Lena Murrill-Chapman as vice president of AAUWNC.”

“Great Leaders Make a Difference”
